

ANNICK DE MARFFY MANTUANO

Short Biography

President of INDEMER scientific Board (Institut du droit économique de la mer) (Monaco);

Former Member of the Board of the Oceanographic Institute, Foundation Albert the First, Prince of Monaco;

Member of the National Council of the Sea (Monaco);

Member of the steering Committee on Acidification and Economy, IAEA Environment Laboratories, Monaco;

Member of the steering Committee of the global Forum on oceans, coasts and islands, Center Gerald J. Mangone, University of Delaware (USA);

Former Director of the Division for ocean affairs and the law of the sea, Office of legal affairs (2001-2004); She participated as a member of the UN Secretariat in all substantive sessions of the Third United Nations Conference on the law of the sea (1974-1982); legal adviser in the United Nations Secretariat in the Office then the Division for ocean affairs and the law of the sea. After her retirement in 2004 from the United Nations, she participated in think tank groups in France dealing with the establishment of national policies relating to an integrated approach in marine affairs (group Poseidon convened by the Prime Minister, Tethys, a group from the French Navy and the “Grenelle de la Mer” convened by the Minister for Environment ;

PhD in Law (Docteur en droit d’Etat, France) ;

Diplôme in international relations (Institut du Droit de la paix et du développement), University Sophia Antipolis, Nice, France ;

Member of the French Society of International Law;

Former Member of the American Society of International Law;

Has published numerous articles on ocean affairs and the law of sea both in French and in English as well as a book in French named: « The genesis of the international law of the sea: the seabed Committee (La genèse du droit international de la mer: le Comité des fonds marins).

November 2017