Staff selection system

The annex regarding “Procedures for classification and reclassification of posts” is amended as follows.

1. A new section 5.4 is inserted as follows:
 - 5.4. On an exceptional basis, and during periods of office restructuring or reform, the Secretary-General may directly authorize the reclassification of a position as a result of restructuring, without requiring prior submission to standard classification procedures. This authority ensures the efficiency, agility, and responsiveness of the organization realignment. Reclassifications authorized under this provision shall take effect immediately upon the Secretary-General's decision.
2. The present amendment shall take effect on the date of its issuance.
