One Thousand Reasons

Project description

Please provide a description of the project using the following outline.

- A. Project title
- B. Project objectives (max 600 words) - provide details regarding the number of species that will be described, the habitats and biogeographic regions where the species were collected.
- C. Expected outputs (max 600 words) - provide details regarding the manuscript(s) to be prepared for peer-reviewed publication, other planned dissemination materials, and public data repositories (DNA sequences, images, etc.)
- D. Project methodology (max 1000 words) - provide a detailed description of the approach (e.g., morphological, molecular, etc.) and technique(s) to be used to accomplish the project objectives. Clearly indicate the reason for choosing this method. If this methodology has been used before, please give references. Also indicate how biological samples/specimens will be accessed.
- E. Project excellence (max 300 words) - demonstrate the excellence and expected impact of research results and scientific track record of the applicant.
- F. Collaborations and partnerships - indicate the organizations/agencies with which you propose to collaborate, if any. What will each organization/agency contribute to the project? Are there any volunteers or in-kind partnerships? Please provide evidence of such commitments, if applicable. Are permits or licenses necessary for the project? And if so, have the relevant authorities endorsed the project?
- G. Project implementation schedule - specify the intended project start and end dates. Projects can start no earlier than 1st September and have a 12-month duration in total.
- H. Project budget summary - indicate how the budget will be spent, including laboratory analysis, data processing and analysis, bench fees (consumables, equipment, materials), overhead and institutional fees, personnel remuneration, publications and other project dissemination costs, as appropriate.
- I. Cited bibliography
